September 21, 2002 Down to the Wood & Smith, Funk & Strauss (formerly Say No More)

The pickin' and the grinnin' starts with the first chord and doesn't end until the chairs are put away and the last lights are turned off. Down to the Wood will have you tapping your toes, stomping you feet and asking for more.

Smith, Funk & Strauss is a Winnipeg based trio with a melodic, upbeat, rootsy feel. Their show features tight playing, rich vocal harmonies and unpredictable antics that will no doubt treat your ears as well as your heart.

October 12, 2002 David Francey

"David is the most natural writer that I have ever met in my life. There's no pretence in what he writes. There's no tricks. He just writes what he feels and it comes out sounding like that. And to me, that is just an amazing thing."

James Keelaghan in Penguin Eggs

David's Far End of Summer won the 2002 Juno for Best Roots/Traditional Solo category.

November 9, 2002 Bill Henderson

As a solo performing artist Bill enjoys the freedom to create entirely new approaches to some of the classic songs from The Collectors, Chilliwack and UHF repertoires, not to mention several from artists that were early influences on his taste in music. His shows are personal, energetic, fresh and engaging.

November 23, 2002 Lynn Miles

Lynn is not afraid to look at the melancholy side of life, and write about it, with a depth, truth and clarity that few singer/songwriters possess. Combine those gifts with her beautiful, plaintive voice, her stellar guitar playing and her amazing sense of humour, and you have a truly captivating artist.

February 15, 2003 Martyn Joseph

At first glance Martyn is just another gifted singer/songwriter. First impressions are there to mislead of course: His ambition is broader than entertainment, deeper than commerce. Some want to move your feet, some just want to move you: Martyn Joseph wants to move heaven and earth.
